

Customizable Cataract Surgery Treatment Packages

You've got some great surgery options when it comes to restoring your vision and reducing your dependence on glasses. As with all surgical procedures, there are risks involved.

Talk to Dr. Barth to decide which package below may be right for you.

TREATMENT PACKAGE OPTIONS

PACKAGE 1 Basic Cataract Surgery

This may be right for you if:

- You are comfortable wearing glasses and do not want to reduce your need for them at near and intermediate activities after surgery.

Procedural options:

- Basic measurements.
- Manual surgery.

Advanced technology IOL options:

- Basic Lens Implant only.

PACKAGE 2 Laser-Assisted Cataract Surgery

This may be right for you if:

- You are comfortable wearing glasses and do not want to reduce your need for them at near and intermediate activities after surgery.
- You want the latest cataract technology to be used during surgery to optimize distance vision and depth of field.

Procedural options:

- Advanced measurements and imaging.
- LENSAR Laser System.
- LENSAR Laser reduces astigmatism with precise laser incisions.

Advanced technology IOL options:

- J&J Eyhance Extended Depth of Focus Implant; Advanced astigmatism with surgical guidance with Toric Implant if indicated.*

PACKAGE 3 Advanced Cataract Surgery for Presbyopia With or Without Astigmatism Correction

This may be right for you if:

- You may have astigmatism.
- You have trouble seeing things up close.
- You want to see more clearly over a range of distances.
- You want the best possible vision and Dr. Barth agrees that you could be glasses independent.

Procedural options:

- Advanced measurements and imaging.
- LENSAR Laser System.
- Advanced astigmatism with surgical guidance with Toric Implant if indicated, included with this selection.

Advanced technology IOL options:

- J&J Synergy Multifocal Implant or Alcon PanOptix Trifocal.